FEAST DAYS THIS WEEK

Trinity Sunday, At the Last Supper, Christ explained to the Apostles that he could not teach them everything because they were not, during his lifetime, sufficiently receptive. The Holy Spirit will be charged with continuing Christ's work for all the days of the future church. It is the love of the Father that gives us his son, while the Holy Spirit is ever leading us to know more of the truth.

Monday 13 June

St Anthony, died in Padua in 1231 at the age of 36. Born in Portugal, he had joined the Franciscans and preached against heresy throughout France and Italy.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Ask yourself if what you're doing today is getting you closer to where you want to be tomorrow.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Prayer to St Anthony

O holy St. Anthony, gentlest of saints, your love for God and charity for His Creatures, made you worthy, when on earth, to possess miraculous powers.

Miracles on your word, which you were ever ready to speak for those in trouble or anxiety.

Encouraged by this thought I implore of you to obtain for me (state your requests).

The answer to my prayer may require a miracle, even so, you are the saint of miracles.

O gentle and loving St. Anthony, whose heart was ever full of human sympathy, whisper my petition into the ears of The Sweet Infant Jesus, who loved to be folded in your arms;
and the gratitude of my heart will ever be yours.

Amen
